Thanks Sebastien! Any particular areas of focus in terms of her concerns –particular sectors flagged, for example, like auto?

Ahead of TC Min Alghabra's call this am, note also that the Deputy Chief of Mission at the US Embassy Katherine Brucker checked-in with GAC ADM Michael Grant to convey concerns with the situation.

Hi Jenn and colleagues,

\~

Would be great to receive the readout from Minister Alghabra's call and any other bilateral conversations around this issue. The NSIA spoke to the U.S. Homeland Security Advisor Elizabeth Sherwood-Randall last night around 5pm. I don't have a readout to share. CBSA also had some ADM-level engagements with the U.S. CBP yesterday.

Good morning Jennifer,

\~

On our side, there's a DG-equivalent call this afternoon between DHS and PS to exchange views on the current situation in downtown Ottawa and cross-border elements. The US side will be led by Sam Vinograd, Acting Assistant Secretary for CT and Threat Prevention Policy. As well, Secretary Mayorkas is looking to schedule a short call with Minister Mendicino, possibly for late today.

Perhaps we could agree to share key take-aways should we get read-outs from these discussions.

Good morning colleagues, Minister Alghabra has accepted Secretary Buttigieg request for a call today at noon to discuss the border blockades. Could you let me know what other engagements have taken place or are planned in the near term? Trying to pull together a list. I understand that the NSIA spoke to his counterpart already?

\~

Any intel you could share before 9:30am would be really appreciated.

\~

Thanks!
